Subject: Concerning the processing of unused treated seed corn. The Nebraska's Department of Environment and Energy (NDEE) and Department of Agriculture (NDA) have both been dealing with a facility in Nebraska that has been processing treated seed corn into ethanol. The use, storage and disposal of the resulting distillers grain, also referred to as wet cake, has been a problematic issue and potential environmental concern. The company's intent was to apply the wet cake as a soil conditioner and was permitted as
